

BRIDGE LESSONS at PGA NATIONAL WINTER 2010

Learn while you play
HAVE FUN WHILE YOU LEARN

DEFENDING WELL TO DEFEAT YOUR OPPONENTS:

Six-session course concentrating on Defense. This course is designed for intermediate level bridge players who want to improve their game. Topics discussed include: Opening leads, third-hand play, second hand play, defensive signals, cooperating with partner, planning the defense, complete bidding and hand play review.

Six mornings: 9:00 to 11:30 a.m.

Tuesdays: January 5, 12, 19 & 26, February 2 & 9, 2010

Cost: $90 per person for all six lessons.

MODERN METHODS OF COMPETITIVE BIDDING:

Six-session course for active players. Topics discussed include: preemptive opening bids, the law of total tricks, overcalls and advances, takeout doubles and advances, negative and reopening doubles. Combining constructive and obstructive bids in the competitive auction.

Six mornings: 9:00 to 11:30 a.m.

Tuesdays: February 16 & 23, March 9, 16, 23 & 30, 2010.

Cost: $90 per person for all six lessons.

For Information contact: JOSEPH MENKES at (561) 736-4992

APPLICATION

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Please complete and mail with your check payable to:
J. Menkes, 7072 Ashford Lane, Boynton Beach, FL 33472.

*Please indicate which course: Defense _____ Bidding _____